

The Edinburgh Festival
fringe

MOVING PARTS THEATRE COMPANY PRESENT

CRIME AND PUNISHMENT

by Fyodor Dostoevsky • ADAPTED AND DIRECTED BY FIONA McCABE

“Moving Parts Theatre Company ... visually pleasing... choreographed beautifully”
(ThreeWeeks)

A rich adaptation by local favourites Moving Parts tells an elegant tale of poverty and misguided deeds.

An epic story reduced down to the bare bones of man and his motivations. Has society changed? Has one man's actions improved the lives of those around him?

Dostoevsky shines a light on the human condition. Moving Parts' adaptation of this classic tale combines key elements of the story and weaves through Rodion's thoughts and misguided perspective.

7.30pm Monday 10th – Sat 15th August 2009

Venue 11: Diverse Attractions, Riddles Court, off The High Street
Book Tickets: Diverse Attractions – 0131 225 8961 or the Fringe Box Office – 0131 226 0000
Ticket Price: £10, Concessions £7.50

NANCIE MASSEY TRUST

EDINBURGH
THE CITY OF EDINBURGH COUNCIL